

Starch-Iodine complex

The starch molecule assumes a helical bundle shape exposing hydroxyl groups and here, the electronegative iodide ion interacts with the electropositive hydrogen belongs to the – OH group. This results a polyiodide starch complex.

